Attorney-General's response to the Office of the Queensland Integrity
Commissioner funding proposal

On 28 February 2025, the Justice, Integrity and Community Safety Committee received a funding proposal from the Integrity Commissioner for a permanent increase to the Office of the Queensland Integrity Commissioner's annual budget of approximately $1.824 million per year ongoing. This totals $7.121 million over four years then $1.872 million annually.

The Justice, Integrity and Community Safety Committee wrote to me on 13 March 2025 resolving to approve the Integrity Commissioner's funding proposal.

In accordance with Cabinet Budget Review Committee considerations, the funding proposal has been approved.

DEB FRECKLINGTON MP
Attorney-General and Minister for Justice
